Principal’s Foreword
Introduction

Brisbane Catholic Education (BCE) emphasises the importance of regular school reporting by schools to their local community on school progress and achievements. Such reporting addresses the relevant Non-State Schools Accreditation (NSSA) Board’s requirement for school improvement.

This annual report presents the school’s distinctive curriculum offerings, extra-curricula activities and how Information & Communication Technologies are used to assist learning. This report further describes parent, student and teacher satisfaction with the school, social climate and how parents are involved in their children’s education. The annual report includes information regarding the My School Website which presents the 2013 National Assessment Program – Literacy and Numeracy (NAPLAN) Results.

As a school community we are very proud of our achievements and I would like to congratulate all members of the school staff and parent body who contribute to the effectiveness of our great school.

If you have any questions regarding this report I would be more than happy to be contacted.

How Information and Communication Technologies are used to assist learning

Information and Communication Technologies (ICTs) are valuable tools that are used to enhance student learning outcomes at St Joachim’s. The school provides ongoing professional learning opportunities to assist teachers to embed ICTs into the curriculum. During 2013 interactive whiteboards and ultra-short throw interactive data projectors were installed in all classrooms.

All students have access to ICTs to engage in the Australian Curriculum and further enhance their knowledge, skills and values across all ACARA Learning Areas.

At St Joachim’s teachers provide opportunities for students to engage with ICTs including notebook computers, iPads, iPods, interactive whiteboards, online tools and so much more. Learning to use the technologies are not an end in themselves; they are the vehicle for learning in a contemporary world.

Each classroom has high speed wireless internet connection and has a bank of desktop computers and printing facilities.

Social climate inclusive of pastoral care and our response to bullying

St Joachim’s is a Catholic school that was established by the Sisters of St Joseph in 1938. It is a Christ centred Catholic community that seeks to develop each person to their full potential “for the greater glory of God” (our school motto). Our school is a caring learning environment that boasts a professional staff, who assist students to grow to their full potential. St Joachim’s School is supported by the extensive resources of the Brisbane Catholic Education Office to provide a broad curriculum choice with emphasis on individual potential and ability.

St Joachim’s has a positive approach to developing a supportive learning environment (behaviour management). Peer Mediation & Circle Time are two initiatives supporting the pastoral care of our students. Our school has clear school behaviour management procedures that also define how the school responds to bullying. Our procedures are located on the school’s website.
Parent, student and teacher satisfaction with the school

Parents, students and teachers at St Joachim’s are encouraged to provide the school with feedback. The Parents and Friends’ Association is a regular forum for the discussion of school issues and parents are also encouraged to maintain regular contact with their child’s teacher. Each year the school undergoes an internal school renewal process which offers the school community the opportunity to provide detailed feedback on the level of satisfaction with the school.

Parents, students and staff report that our school is a welcoming and inclusive environment where all are accepted.
